BOOK-PRICES CURRENT

VOLUMES I. TO XXV.

Being a Record of the Prices at which Books have been sold at Auction during the years 1887 to 1911, with the Titles and Descriptions of the Books in full, the Catalogue Numbers, the Names of the Purchasers, Special Notes on certain Books, and a very full Index.

Demy 8vo. bound in buckram, and printed on good paper, with fine margin for notes, price £1 7s. 6d. net each.

Some of the earlier volumes are out of print, and greatly advanced in price. Information concerning these can be had on application to the Publisher. The more recent ones can still be had at the published price, but very few copies of any of the volumes remain on hand.

Opinions of the Press.

"We acknowledge, with much pleasure, that 'Book-Prices Current' is now the most carefully edited work of its kind published in this or any other country."—Athenæum.

"A very useful and admirably edited and printed publication. No collector nor bookseller can do without this most comprehensive and invaluable guide to the ups and downs of the book market."—Morning Post.

"This indispensable reference book is making itself more and more necessary to bookbuyers and booksellers."—Bookseller.

"One of the most valuable assets a bookseller can have."—The Clique.

"It exhibits all those good qualities of accurate record which have raised the publication to such a position of universal esteem."—Publishers' Circular.

THE INDEX TO THE FIRST TEN VOLUMES OF BOOK-PRICES CURRENT, 1887-1896

Constituting a Reference List of Subjects and, incidentally, a Key to Anonymous and Pseudonymous Literature.

Demy 8vo., bound in buckram. Price One Guinea net.

"If money, as Anthony Trollope neatly put it, be the reward of labour, too much is certainly not asked for the labour which has 'marshalled into order a manuscript involving 33,000 distinct titles and considerably over 500,000 numerals.' The typographical arrangement of the volume will receive praise from those who can understand the difficulties of the printers' task."—The Guardian.

THE SECOND INDEX TO
Book - Prices Current

Volumes XI. to XX.

For the Years 1897-1906.

By WILLIAM JAGGARD, F.R.S.A., M.B.S., etc.

FORMING A KEY TO THE TEN VOLUMES AND, INCIDENTALLY, TO ANONYMOUS, PSEUDONYMOUS, AND SUPPRESSED LITERATURE, WITH A SUPPLEMENT OF BIBLIOPHILES AND BIBLIOPOLES.

Uniform with "Book-Prices Current." Demy 8vo, pp. xx.-1058. Buckram gilt, £2 2s. net.

The Clique says:—"In the course of testing a great number of references, to see whether we could discover any errors, we are glad to say that we can find none. This is high praise when the author says in his preface, 'This Index contains about one hundred thousand entries, while the numerals employed, which closely approach a million, almost defy counting.' Among the great advantages of the Index may be mentioned the promptitude with which the reader may now find and compare the relative value of any book during the decade covered (bringing to a point the various copies sold), enabling him to ascertain whether its value has increased or diminished during the period. . . . The Second Index is so superior to the former one that the permanent value of 'B.P.C.' as a bibliographer's guide is increased fourfold. This index is one of the largest ever compiled, and it represents three years' work."

The Library Association Record says:—"This volume is indispensable to every reference library, and adds considerably to the reputation of English Bibliography."

INTRODUCTION.

THOUGH fewer sales appear in this volume of BOOK PRICES CURRENT than in the one immediately preceding, their quality is noticeably higher, the average sum per lot being £2 14s. 5d., as against £2 9s. 1d. assigned to the season 1909-10. This increase is due to several unusually-important sales which will be found reported very fully in the following pages, as, for example, those of the libraries of Mr. L. J. Berger, Mr. Charles Butler, Mr. S. R. Crockett, the Rev. J. H. Dent, Sir Theodore Martin, Captain Douglas, and Dr. Payne, as well as of a number of miscellaneous collections of unusual interest. The library of Captain Douglas consisted entirely of books, pamphlets, and other works illustrated by George Cruikshank, and if the report of his sale is read in conjunction with that of the late Mr. Edwin Truman, reported in the 20th volume of BOOK PRICES CURRENT, p. 285 et seq., a very comprehensive survey of the activities of the great master of English pictorial satire will be obtained with a minimum of trouble, both collections being arranged alphabetically throughout. Of the two collections, that formed by Captain Douglas was the better, though both alike were worthy in their several ways of the fullest recognition, as having necessitated great ability as well as the expenditure of an immense amount of labour in their construction.

The greatest sale which has so far been held in any country—that of the library of the late Mr. Robert Hoe, at the time of writing but partly dispersed—will be found referred to on page 491. It has not been thought necessary to report this in full for the reasons there stated, but special reference is made to it in order to put it upon record and to acknowledge it as being, even so far as it has progressed, the most important collection of books which has come into the market since the sale of the great Beckford Library in 1823 and later years. At the same time, it may well be doubted whether the record-breaking sums obtained for individual books at the Hoe sale were really justified by the present trend of the market, and it is certainly a curious fact that one book alone, "The Mazarin Bible," on vellum, should have realized £10,000—almost as much as was obtained for the entire library of Mr. Charles Butler, catalogued in 2,100 lots and containing very many volumes of quite exceptional interest. Rarity plus sentiment seems to have completely ousted utility from the field in all cases where colossal prices are in question.

Another point to be noticed is the growing demand for what may be called "Literary Manuscripts," by which is meant works in MS. which are of an essentially literary character, ancient or modern, as distinguished from those decorated service books which have at all times attracted the attention of collectors. The coming of "Literary Manuscripts" has been comparatively recent in the sense that the full appreciation of them, as reflected in the high prices they often realise, is of modern origin. Such a sum as £451 for a single leaf of one of the Journals of Captain Cook (see post No. 8630) would have been regarded as impossible ten or a dozen years ago, though it is very doubtful whether the high-water mark has yet been reached even in that case, for competition is increasing, manuscripts are in their nature unique, and the supply is by no means equal to the demand.

The average of £2 14s. 5d., disclosed by the season's book sales as reflected in this volume, may be described as fairly good. It is higher than that of the season 1909-10 (£2 9s. 1d.), but lower than that of 1908-9 (£3 11s. 10d.), and much lower than that of 1906-7 (£4 4s. 2d.), which was by far the highest on record. During the last two or three years great masses of cheap but by no means unimportant books have for some reason or other been thrown on the market, and the sums realised for these derelicts, for such they have unfortunately become in the passing of time, have frequently been almost negligible. They swell the total and depreciate the average, and this, perhaps, is the best commentary on the results of the more recent sales that can be furnished. Never, until utility is once more made the most important factor by those who gather many books around them, will this state of things be altered, and never till then will the scholar, as distinguished from the accumulator, have reason to complain that the best books are beyond his reach.

 I. The First Leaf of a Psalter, with a large painted and illuminated initial B (6½ in. by 5½ in.), in 2 divisions, whole page in pigments of red, green, blue, yellow and pink, heightened in thick burnished gold by a clever artist of the Italian Renaissance (Giotto School).
 II. A decorated initial B, from an Antiphonarium of the late XVth Century Italian School, in 2 divisions, representing a crucifix below and the Deity above (9¼ in. by 7½ in.) within a mosaic border, in which are 8 heads of cherubs in pigments of blue, yellow, green and red, heightened in thick burnished gold.

III. A painted and illuminated initial Q, in which is represented the Triumphant Entry of Christ into Jerusalem (9 in. by 10 in.), cut from an Italian Antiphonale of the best school of the Renaissance period, the ass and its foal and the city gates in grey, the other pigments used being green, yellow, blue, red and pink, heightened in thick burnished gold.

IV. A Leaf of a Flemish Carthusian Missal of the XVth Century, with a fine large initial E, representing a saint praying in a gothic nave, the 2 side borders of natural flowers and branches made to proceed from the horns of two stags, in the upper border heads of the Prophets Abias and Balaam, with the dove in centre, and in the centre of the lower margin a gold cross on blue clouds, the leaf measures 13 in. by 9 in. by a first-rate artist.

V. Another illuminated Leaf, apparently from the same Missal, with a large miniature initial E, representing the Annunciation, border of natural flowers, etc. with miniature heads of saints, a monk receiving a book from the General of the Order below, the leaf measures 13 in. by 9 in.

VI-VII. Two painted and illuminated Woodcuts, on vell., from a French Book of Hours (Verard or Pigouchet) of the XVth Century, representing a battle scene and a king banqueting, 9 in. by 5½ in. (without text).

VIII-IX. Two Leaves of a small Italian Horae, XVth Century, painted and illuminated borders, the whole mounted in an imperial folio volume, mor. ex. (577)

 [A work upon astronomy, astrology and medicine, apparently unpublished.—Catalogue.]
- 2002 Gilbert (William). De Magnete, first edition, woodcuts, cf., Excudebat P. Short, anno 1600, sm. folio (151) Gorton, £12 10s.
- 2003 Firdousi. Shah-Nahmeh, Persian manuscript, on native paper, written in 4 columns (321 leaves 13½ in. by 7¾ in.), with 27 illuminated paintings, mostly 7 in. by 5 in., native black mor. (repaired) with orig. cl. cover, late 16th or early 17th century, folio (154) Young, £18 10s.
- 2004 Firdousi. The Shah-Nahmeh, Persian manuscript, on native

- glazed paper (467 leaves 18½ in. by 10 in.), written in 4 columns, within gold lines, the headings of sections in red, 43 illuminated paintings (mostly 6½ in. by 7 in.), and 4 decorated pages, native mor., with gold mosaics, Sæc. XVII. (?), folio (155) Young, £31
- 2005 De Bar (N. V.) La Bibliothèque Historiale, contenant la disposition & concordance des temps, 3 vol., contemp. mor., finely tooled with arabesques, succeeded by an inner border of flowers, from the four corners of which a fanfare of leafy scrolls extends, the centre panel bears a coat-of-arms surrounded with arabesques, in the intervening space between the centre decoration and the border a semis of tiny fleur-de-lis, g.e., Paris, 1588, folio (156) Leighton, £126
- 2006 Byron (Lord). Ode to Napoleon Bonaparte, orig. autograph manuscript of 16 Stanzas on 13 pages 4to. (one sheet water-stained) [illustration], n. d. (157) Sabin, £320
 [The first draft of the Ode consisted of 12 stanzas (numbered in the final version 1, 4, 6-12, 14-16), and the manuscript of them is written consecutively on two folded sheets of paper. Stanzas 17-19 were not printed till 1831, and there is no manuscript of them here (see Byron's Poetry, edited by E. H. Coleridge, vol. iii., 1900). There are many differences between this manuscript and the printed version which appear to have escaped the notice of all Byron's editors, and stanzas 14 and 16 were largely re-written from the proofs. No other autograph manuscript of this poem is known to exist. This manuscript and the miniatures and seals were bequeathed by the seventh Lord Byron, first cousin of the poet, whom he succeeded in the title, to his son the Hon. and Rev. Augustus Byron, for 47 years Rector of Kirkby Mallory in Leicestershire. At his death, three years ago, he bequeathed them to the present owner.—Catalogue.]
- 2007 Turner (J. M. W.) Liber Studiorum, a complete set of the seventy-one plates, with large margins, uniformly mounted; and in addition two duplicates and an impression of one of the unpublished plates; also the front page of the grey wrappers of parts i.-x. in which the plates were originally published, which are initialled by J. M. W. Turner, all in two solander cases, hf. mor. (166) Knight, £60
 [Eight of the plates were in the first state, and fifteen in the second. The Catalogue gives a full list of the plates with their states.—ED.]

(γ) Autograph Manuscripts of George Meredith.

The property of Miss Nicholls, nurse and attendant of George Meredith for the last seven years of his life.

- 2008 The Tale of Chloë, an episode in the history of Beau Beamish, 113 pp. (167) Quaritch, £171 [First published in the "New Quarterly Magazine," July, 1879. This "lamentable" tale—as we learn from this manuscript the author originally intended to call it—is generally considered the finest of his shorter prose romances.—Catalogue.]

- 2009 The Tragic Comedians, 264 pp. complete, except for p. 31 (the pages of the manuscript are numbered up to 259, but several are repeated). Some pages have been repaired at the edges, but no words appear to be missing (168)

B. F. Stevens, £220

[The manuscript is complete in itself, with the exception of the one missing page, but is only divided into thirteen chapters. When first published in the "Fortnightly Review," Oct., 1880-Feb., 1881, it consisted of fifteen chapters, and before publication in book form was extended to nineteen chapters.—Catalogue.]

- 2010 A Conqueror in our Time, 440 pp. An early unpublished version of approximately half the novel afterwards called "One of our Conquerors" (169)

Barling, £260

[It consists of chap. i.-xvi. and chap. xix., with earlier drafts of chap. vii., xix., parts of xiv., etc. The first nine chapters of the manuscript correspond roughly with the first thirteen of the novel as printed, but after that the earlier draft appears to have been abandoned to a large extent, though chap. xix. has considerable resemblance to the final version of chap. xix. as printed. There are no less than four versions in all of the opening of chap. xiv., a modified form of the latest being finally adopted as the opening of chap. xvii. The following is a list of the chapter headings of the manuscript and the chapters of the finished novel to which they correspond, so far as these can be ascertained:—

MANUSCRIPT.	PRINTED NOVEL.

| [This novel, which now consists of forty-three chapters, was first published in twenty-six chapters only in the "Fortnightly Review," June-December, 1884, and was considerably enlarged before publication in book form in the following year. It appears probable that this manuscript is an early draft of some of the additions then made. The longest consecutive fragment (38 pp.) is an early version of parts of chap. xxxix. and xl.— Catalogue.] | |
| 2012 The Amazing Marriage, portions of an early unpublished version of the novel, about 110 pp. (171) | Edwards , £96 |
| [The manuscript consists of chap. xii.-xiv. and xvii.-xix., with another version of part of chap. xviii. and the opening page of chap. xlv. The three first chapters correspond to parts of chap. ix. and x. of the novel as printed, but afterwards the whole framework of the book appears to have been radically altered. The fragment of chap. xlv. describes the intention of Lord Levellier's workmen to "pay the old Lord a rouse," and is partially embodied in chap. xlv. as printed. On the back of this page are four lines of poetry, apparently unpublished, headed "The Parting of the Hour."— Catalogue.] | | i.

Jump-To-Glory Jane

A Revelation came on Jane,
The widow of a labouring swain:
And first her body trembled sharp,
Then all the woman was a harp
With winds along the strings; she heard
Though there was neither tone nor word.

ii.

For fast our hearing was the air,
Beyond our speaking what it bore.

No. 2018.—This Poem appeared in the Universal Review for October, 1889. It was said at the time that fifty copies had been separately published, but Mr. Quilter's reprint of 1892 is the only authentic one. See The Athenæum, 3rd Dec., 1892, p. 780.

 [A manuscript of exceptional interest, as only a comparatively small portion of it is included in the published poem. After describing the "Night of Frost" the poet proceeds to describe how memory peoples for him "that fair night" with all his favourite poets, "our nightingales of English song."

With him on Canterbury's way
 With him who harped "on such a night";
 With him who tuned "the bloomy spray"
 And welcome he who gave to ear
 "A damsel with a dulcimer";
 And he of "Faëry lands forlorn,"
 The voice beneath the hovering shroud;
 Hear him who piped the "beauty born
 Of murmuring sound"; and hear the cloud
 Songfully fly: hear him who roused
 To chant those Lotos-Eaters drowsed;
 Who passed into the Brook, and rhymes
 Our tongue with limpid water-chimes.

My palace of the night they fill:
 Not jealously the gates to new
 Forbidding, emulous not chill.
 He with the feet of Hermes, who Sang Atalanta, enters there.—Catalogue.]

- 2023 George Meredith. The Monthly Observer, Nos. 11, 13, 14, 16 and 17, January-July, 1849, a Manuscript Magazine composed by a few friends. Each number contains a contribution from George Meredith, which amount in all to about 200 lines of verse and 23 pp. 4to. of prose (182)

B. F. Stevens, £80

[The poems are entitled "St. Therèse," "Brotherhood," "A Sonnet," "Chillianwallah," and five translations from German poets—Heine, Von Eichendorff, Göethe (2) and Uhland. Of these, "Chillianwallah" was published in "Chambers's Journal," 1849, and is said to be the earliest of his works that has been identified (see the obituary notice, "Times," May 19, 1909; the others appear to be unpublished. SOTHEY, WILKINSON & HODGE.

A FURTHER PORTION OF THE LARGE COLLECTION OF MANUSCRIPTS AND AUTOGRAPH LETTERS OF THE LATE SIR THOMAS PHILLIPPS, BART.

(No. of Lots, 1143; amount realised, £8,795 17s. 6d.)

[NOTE.—This sale comprised the fifteenth portion of the collection of MSS. formed by the late Sir Thomas Phillipps, which, including the amount above named, has so far realised a total sum of £59,827 3s. 6d. This series of sales was commenced by Messrs. Sotheby in 1886, and has been continued at intervals since that date, but, as explained in Vol. xxii., p. 580, of BOOK-PRICES CURRENT, it has not been thought necessary, for the reasons there stated, to do more than shortly refer to the sales as they occur. On this occasion several high prices were realised, e.g.: The original collections of Sir William Dugdale, in his autograph, 2 vol., 17th cent., £122 (rough cf. and clasps, Lot 321). The Cartulary of the Monastery of Ford, on 574 pages of vellum, 15th cent. (no other Cartulary of this Cistercian Abbey is known), £235 (russ., Lot 386). A Cartulary of the Abbey of Glastonbury, on 446 pages of vellum, 1515-17, large folio, £150 (monastic binding, Lot 483). The original Wardrobe Book of Queen Mary and King Philip for the years 1554-5, on vellum, £120 (hf. russ., Lot 677). The Cartulary of the Monastery of St. Mary's, York, on vellum, a MS. of the 14th and 15th centuries, in 2 vol., folio, £505 (russ., Lot 1132), and many other very important records. An extensive list of prices realised at this sale is given in the Athenæum for May 6th, 1911 page 508.—ED.]

THE ANDERSON AUCTION COMPANY, NEW YORK.

A PORTION OF THE LIBRARY OF THE LATE MR. ROBERT HOE.

The first part of this extremely important Library was catalogued by the Anderson Auction Company in two divisions, the first covering the letters A to K and the second L to Z, the whole being arranged alphabetically under authors' names, and issued in two paper backed volumes comprising 3,538 lots. This catalogue, which is illustrated, contains a "Foreword" referring to Mr. Hoe, a Bibliographical Summary of the contents of the Library, and a Chronological List of Americana, Incunabula and Bindings sold on the days above mentioned. In addition, most of the entries were annotated, the two volumes forming by no means a bare catalogue of books offered for sale, but a very useful work of reference, admirably compiled and well worthy of preservation.

Unless under quite exceptional circumstances, of which the Hoe Library forms a conspicuous example, it is not usual to refer, in the pages of BOOK-PRICES CURRENT, to auction sales held outside the United Kingdom, especially as, in the case of the United States, a similar publication—American Book-Prices Current—is capable of dealing with local matters more satisfactorily than would be possible here. The Hoe Sale will no doubt be fully reported in the annual volume of "American Book-Prices Current," or in the alternative a full list of the prices realised can be obtained from the Anderson Auction Company, 12 East 46th Street, New York, in case it is wished to complete the Catalogue.

It must be understood that the sale held on the dates above mentioned covers but a fourth part of Mr. Hoe's extensive library, and that three additional sales, the dates of which will be announced hereafter, are yet to come, so that this historic collection will, if the results so far accomplished can be regarded as indicative of what may be expected on future occasions, be the most important which has so far been sold by auction in the United States or any other country. Even the comparatively few books catalogued A to K, comprising 1,947 lots, are stated to have realised no less than $462,000, or £92,400 sterling, a sum which exceeds the total amount obtained for the whole Beckford Library by several thousand pounds. It is not, of course, possible to compare the Hoe and the Beckford sales in point of their money value, as the latter sale was held in 1823 and again in 1882-83, when prices were very different from what they are now. All that is intended to be conveyed is that on a bare calculation the total amount realised at the Beckford sales from first to last was £89,200—the largest sum ever obtained for a library sold by public auction until one section of the Hoe sale broke the record.

The prices realised at the Hoe sale have, so far, been higher than have ever been obtained before for copies of the same books ; indeed, some of these prices were so conspicuously out of the reckoning, so to speak, that all kinds of explanations have been advanced to account for them, as, for example, reckless competition between two or more extremely rich collectors, to whom a few thousand pounds, more or less, are of no consequence ; jealousy on the part of some of the booksellers present, who bid with equal recklessness in the hope of saddling one another with books at a loss, and so on through a long list of probabilities for which there would not appear to be any justification. Judging from the high prices which have often been realised at other sales of late and the reason for them, it is clear that, given a book of exceptional importance, in fine condition, it cannot be said that any price, which is not absolutely ridiculous, is too high to pay for it. All Mr. Hoe's books so far sold by auction were in the finest condition in which they can be got, and some of them were of the first importance. These factors combined fully account for the record-breaking results.

A few of these prices, given in English money, may now be mentioned. The "Biblia Sacra Latina" (Mogunt, Gutenberg and Fust, 1450-55), otherwise known as "The Mazarin Bible," the first book printed from movable type, £10,000 (on vellum, two leaves in facsimile). This was bought for Mr. H. E. Huntingdon, who also secured for £2,400 an almost perfect copy (2 blank leaves missing) of the first edition of Dame Juliana Berners' "Book of Saint Albans," 1486, folio (orig. wooden bds.) The first or Kilmarnock edition of Burns's Poems, 1786, sold for £1,160 (mor., g. t., other edges uncut). Lt.-Col. Simcoe's "Journal of the Operations of the Queen's Rangers," 1787, 4to., £450 (orig. bds.) Sir Philip Sidney's "Defense of Poesie," William Ponsonby's edition of 1595, 4to., £625 (mor.) Shakespeare's First Folio, 1623, a large and sound copy, £2,600 (old mor.) ; the second folio, 1632, perfect, and described as the largest copy known, £1,350 (mor.) ; the third folio, 1664, a fine and large copy, £3,200 (mor.) Shakespeare's "Poems," 1640, one of the finest copies known, £3,200 (mor.) Pliny's "Historia Naturalis," 1472, folio, printed on vellum, first page and initial letters illuminated, £545 (old mor.) "The Parliament of Devils," printed by Wynkyn de Worde in 1509, small 4to., one of the two copies known, £3,900 (mor.) Milton's "Paradise Lost," first edition, second title page, 1667, small 4to., £350 (mor.) ; and the same author's "Poems," 1645, 12mo., £304 (orig. sheep). Sir Thomas Malory's "Le Morte D'Arthur," printed by Caxton in 1485, folio, the only perfect copy known, bought by Mr. J. P. Morgan for £8,560, and "Helyas, Knight of the Swanne," printed on vellum, by Wynkyn de Worde, in 1512, folio, the only copy known, £4,200 (17th cent. calf binding). And so we might go on quoting prices which have never been realised before for books of a similar character, but which may, nevertheless, be realised again in view of the widespread demand of which I have spoken.—ED.

Charles Dickens, Seventeenth December, 1843," orig. cl., yellow end-papers, g. e. (soiled and faded), 1843, 8vo. (128)
Sabin, £71

[The date of the inscription in the above copy raises a question of interest to collectors, namely, as to whether green or yellow end-papers were used in the earliest issue of this volume. Heretofore the green end-papers have always been regarded as a sign of the first issue, together with the use of the Roman I. to the heading of the first chapter. In this copy, however, "Stave I." appears with the yellow end-papers.—Catalogue.]

SOTHEBY, WILKINSON & HODGE.

THE LIBRARY OF EARLY MEDICAL WORKS FORMED BY THE LATE DR. JOHN FRANK PAYNE, M.D., F.R.C.P.

(No. of Lots, 731; amount realised, £2,300.)

This library was of an exceedingly important character. It consisted mainly of medical works in English, Latin and German (printed in this country and abroad during the 16th and 17th centuries) by such celebrated practitioners as Peter of Abano (the reputed magician who fell into the hands of the Inquisition), Hippocrates, Galen, Paracelsus, Monardes, Ulrich Hutten, James Ferrand, and many more, including William Harvey, the re-discoverer of the circulation of the blood. It included also many manuscripts and a large number of works relating to the Plague. The entire collection was sold en bloc to Mr. Tobin for the sum above named.
